

remains of James Minott, Esq., A. M., an excelling Grammarian, Enriched with a Gift of Prayer & Preaching, a Commanding Officer, a Physician of Great Value, a Great Lover of Peace as well as of Justice, and what was His greatest Glory, a Gentn. of distinguished Virtue & Goodness, happy in a Virtuous Posterity, & living Religiously Died comfortably Sept 20, 1735, aet 83."

Francis Newcomb (No. 134) of Boston came in the Planter in 1635 aged thirty with wife Rachel aged twenty.

Thomas Oakes (No. 200) first appears with wife Elizabeth at Cambridge, Mass.

Dr. Richard Palgrave (No. 978) was one of the first physicians of Charlestown. He died in 1651 and had wife Anna who, after his death, went back to England and lived in Stepney, Co. Middlesex, dying there about 1669.

Francis Peabody (No. 820) (perhaps son of John) was of Hampton, Mass., in 1638. He came in the ship Planter in 1635, aged 21. His wife was Mary, daughter of Renould Foster.

James Prescott (No. 2498) of Standish in Lancashire, Eng., married a daughter of Roger Standish of Standish Hall.

Roger Prescott (No. 1248), son of James, first married in 1553 Elizabeth who died soon, and he married second Ellen (?) Shaw of Standish on Aug. 20, 1588. His residence was Shelvington in the parish of Standish, and he made his will Sept. 26, 1596.

Ralph Prescott (No. 624) resided in Shevington, and married Ellen. His will was dated Nov. 7, 1608 and proved January 24, 1609.

John Prescott (No. 812) was born in 1604-5 at Standish and on January 21, 1629, at Wigan in Lancashire he married Mary Platts. He landed in the Barbadoes in 1638 and in Boston in 1640, and settled in Lancaster in 1643.

Capt. Jonas Prescott (No. 156) was born at Lancaster, Mass., June 1648 and married Mary Loker Dec. 14, 1672, and later married Mary Draper, of Sudbury. Jonas settled in Groton and became Captain of the militia. He built mills and a forge for the manufacture of iron.

Capt. Jonas Prescott (No. 78), like his father was officer in the militia and was also Rep. to the Gen Court in 1770.

Humphrey Reyner (No. 966) of Rowley, Mass., was born at Gilderstone in the west riding of Yorkshire, England, not far from Leeds and died in this country in 1660. He was Rep to the Gen. Court in 1649. His daughter Martha married John Whipple (No. 482).

Rev. John Reyner (No. 962) brother of Humphrey (No. 966), was born at Gilderstone, England, bred at Magdalen College, Cambridge, and took the A. B. degree in 1625. He married one of the four daughters and co-heiresses named Boyle, of his native parish and came before 1636 to New England, perhaps with his wife. He was pastor in Plymouth 1636-54 and at Dover, N. H., 1655 to his death, Apr. 20, 1669. His daughter Anna married Job Lane (No. 480). Gov. Bradford says: "And it pleased the Lord to send them an able and a godly man (Mr. John Relnon) and of a meeke and humble spirite, sound in ye truth, and in every way unreprouable in his life and conversation; whom, after some time of triall, they chose for their teacher, the fruits of whose labours they enjoyed many years with much comforte and good agreements."